diun better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, Oct. 26, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

A clear sky favored star-gazing.

Monday evening.

Witches, black cats and other Hallowe'en favors are in demand.

The rabbits which are offered for sale by local marketmen look pump.

In St. Patrick's church on Monday there was an anniversary requiem high mass for Patrick Twomey.

I. O. O. F., tonight at 7:45, a full attendance desired, refreshments will be served.—adv.

D. A. R. chapters from eastern Connecticut will send delegations to the fall meeting in New Britain tomorrow (Wednesday).

Prominent local Episcopalians have been invited to New Haven to the centenary celebration of St. John's church, next Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The Connecticut chapter of the Daughters of the Founders and Patriots of America will meet in Patrick armory, Hartford, this (Tuesday) afternoon.

Steam yacht Narada will be measured Tuesday by Deputy Collectors Beckwith and Dillon for registry in list of vessels of the United States—New London Day.

The office of the board of assessors will be open from 9.15 to 8 p. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and November 1.—adv.

A notice is being issued that after November 1 the cost of registered letters will be twelve cents, two cents for a stamp and ten cents for registration. This is a two-cent increase.

Members of the Woman's Relief corps all over the state sent post cards Sunday to the Rev. Dr. J. H. Bode of Hartford, who celebrated his 70th birthday anniversary on Sunday.

Barbers' unions throughout the state are endeavoring to keep the inflation fee at $25, the amount charged in most of the cities. The Meriden union is the last to raise the fee to $25, so voting on Sunday.

At the Baltic Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening, Rev. Mr.

Smith preached on Lessons of Autumn

Time. Matthew Bailey sang a solo.

The church was decorated with auumn leaves, potted plants, sheaves of rye, and fruit.

Miss Grace Rose Kaplan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kaplan of Chesterfield, was united in marriage

Sunday evening at 6 o'clock with Louis Saul of New York. Rabbi Samuels of the Chesterfield synagogue performed the ceremony.

held on Sunday in Waterford in a private house, being conducted by a lay reader, Henry F. Douglas, who adds this work to his duties of asisting at the Seabury Memorial church, Groton.

A number of temperance workers from Norwich will go to New London this (Tuesday) evening to hear the Rev. Dr. Walter J. Shaw of Danbury, who will speak on temperance at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church.

The lecture is public.

Business men and others using Docology have been negotiating for a bus-light over the dark steps in the center of the lane. It is maintained that the extra $15 per year cost would be much less than the expense to the city in cases of possible accident and injury.

Norwich students who were at Trinity college during the professorship of Dr. Arnold Van C. Huisinga of Thompson, will read with interest the story of his romantic engagement, on page 2. Mr. Huisinga took Prof. J. J.

McCook's classes two years ago, while Professor Cook made a round-the-world trip.

SERENADED MR. AND MRS. VARS.

Given Enthusiastic Reception When

They Arrived at Harrison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Vars, who were married in Montville last week met a noisy reception on their arrival at their home at Harrison's Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Vars were expected home by their neighbors and plans were made accordingly. Eight launchees are owned by the colonists at Harrison's and these were all departed temporarily of their bells and whistles.

With these noise makers and Capt.

Billy Harrison in command, the neighbors, reinforced by some friends from Quaker Hill, surrounded the Vars home. A regular old fashioned serenamade took place. Mr. and Mrs. Vars invited the serenaders in and despite the fact that they were unexpected guests they were made welcome.

FOUND GUILTY AND FINED.

Herman Main of Lynday was Found

Beaside Track of Norwich & Westerly

Road.

After having been locked up here since Saturday night, Herman Main was released on Monday afternoon by Conductor Christian of the Norwich & Westerly electric road, where he was presented before Justic John H. Barnes upon a warrant drawn by Grand Juror Carpenter charged with intoxication. He was found guilty and was fined $5 and costs and paid $12.35. Main belongs in Lynday, but was found near the Norwich State hospital in a helpless condition Saturday afternoon and to keep him away from the cars he was arrested.

Had Narrow Escape.

Abraham Bronstein, a New London merchant, narrowly escaped death

Monday, when he drove his automobile under the gates at the John street crossing of the railroad. A train was passing. Bronstein jumped in time to avoid being hit, but the machine was smashed.
